

GUERRIERI RIZZARDI

Highlights of 4 years of Gambero Rosso

“Italian Wines 2009” Gambero Rosso, Guerrieri Rizzardi Review”

(p. 343 – Translation)

“...And now we acclaim the two estate champion wines, both from vintage 2004: Calcarole is always more powerful, but perfectly balanced. Villa Rizzardi is still young in aromas, but in the mouth it’s light and all the contents assembled perfectly. This harmonic balance makes it win the three glasses.”

“Italian Wines 2008” Gambero Rosso, Guerrieri Rizzardi Review”

(p. 343 – Translation)

“It is difficult to speak of Guerrieri Rizzardi, a wine estate with great history and image, who owns vineyards in all three of the most important Classico areas of the Veronese DOC wines. With a choice of wines that – quality speaking – are in continuous growth.”

“Italian Wines 2007 – 20th Anniversary” Gambero Rosso, Guerrieri Rizzardi Review”

(p. 321 – Translation)

“Giuseppe Rizzardi is a winemaker who knows exactly what he wants, namely that Calcarole, the family cru, must be an Amarone with such defined character that not all vintages will be suitable.”

“Italian Wines 2006” Gambero Rosso, Guerrieri Rizzardi Review”

(p. 306 – Reprint)

“Although Contessa Maria Cristina Rizzardi is the person most often associated with this winery, we have the feeling that her son Giuseppe Rizzardi is the real driving force, judging from his enthusiasm about the vineyards, the care he takes at every stage of growing and the fact that the vines form an integral part of the landscape.”
